BRITISH HONDURAS.

(Correspondence of the New York Herald.)

Health, Wealth and Resources of the Colony—Movements of Speculators—Advantages Offered to Settle—Sugar Planters Desirable—Mail Arrangements, &c., &c.

BELIZE, British Honduras, Oct. 27, 1866.

HEALTH OF BELIZE.

For near six weeks we have had northerly and westerly winds, with abundance of rain, in this colony. Our nights are quite cold, while the middle of the day is exceedingly hot. This ought to bring chills and fevers, but our town is so healthy that our doctors are complaining of nothing to do, and one of them a few days ago said: "Well, if I don't have more to do I shall have to go to Santa Tomas," a small Belgian settlement in the State of Guatemala, about one hundred and thirty miles from here, where the inhabitants are always sick and where they often die.

SUGAR PLANTING AND LOUISIANA PROSPECTORS.

The rainy weather is bringing forward the cane crop, which is said to be the most promising that has been raised in this colony. There has been a number of sugar planters from the State of Louisiana down here, prospecting for sugar lands. They all admit that our lands and our sugar cane are the best they ever saw; even St. Mary's Parish, they say, is not to be compared with British Honduras.

COST OF LAND GREAT.

The only drawback to this colony is the high price of lands. In former times nearly all the lands in the colony were given away by grants from the crown, as mahogany or logwood works. It then was not pretended that the grants included the lands, but only the wood growing thereon; and with that understanding a grant for three miles frontage, on a river or creek extending eight miles back, was sold by the owners of such grants, as any other piece of personal property, by a simple bill of parcels. In this way, and for sums ranging from one hundred to a thousand dollars, these grants have been bought up by two mahogany cutting establishments, who, with a shrewdness and foresight seldom exceeded by the most acute, got a law passed by the local Legislature, called the "Lands Title act," by which law all grants, on being duly registered under this act, were to have the force of a "fee simple" title to the soil, as well as to the wood growing thereon. Thus for a very moderate outlay nearly all the valuable lands of this colony have passed into the hands of the above two firms, and they, knowing the richness of the soil, now hold the lands at prices far above lands in the surrounding country.

OFFERS TO SETTLERS BY THE GOVERNOR OF BELIZE.

Whatever lands are still ungranted (called the Crown lands) the Governor is offering on the most accommoc terms to actual settlers. Now, as your radical political managers at the North are anxious to drive the sugar-planters from the United States, we shall be glad to receive them; and, moreover, we shall give them all the assistance and encouragement we can, not the least of which are very light taxes, a good, stable, free government—as free and as liberal as was that of the United States in its most palmy days.

MINERAL AND OTHER RESOURCES.

The late rains have swollen all our rivers, and vast quantities of mahogany, which (in some cases) have been waiting two and three years for floods, have come out and are now waiting shipment. We have all the elements of a very flourishing colony, and as soon as our landholders see their own interest, and begin to give the land away to actual settlers, British Honduras will become one of the richest and most prosperous colonies in the world. Our colony includes a part of the mountainous lands in the interior. These mountains abound in marble, granite, slate, iron, silver, gold and other minerals; these will also, on the increase of our population, pour wealth into our colony.

SUBSTITUTE FOR AMERICAN FLOUR AND PORK.

The late war in your country has made provisions so dear that we have in a measure been thrown on our own resources. The consequence is that we have raised great quantities of plantains, which are used in the place of flour, and we have four or five persons engaged in curing pork. These articles take the place of the pork and flour which we formerly imported from the United States.

The brig Grace Worthington, which left New York on the 20th of September, has not yet arrived here. We fear she is lost, as she was a little Methusaleish, and we have had rough weather on the Atlantic for the past two months.

NEW MAIL ARRANGEMENT.

The Governor has called the Legislative Assembly together in special session. It is supposed this session will make some more favorable mail arrangements; and it is hoped this will secure transport via New Orleans,—which would bring us within six days of London,—by the Atlantic cable and the other telegraphs. Our mail arrangements have been very irregular for the past fifteen months. The Royal Mail Company charged so much for their work that our Assembly made a contract with the Liverpool, West India and Pacific Steamship Company; but the work was not done at all. So much for economy.

HORACE MAYNARD.—The meanest looking man in the Congressional party was the renegade Horace Maynard. We saw no citizen speak to him or show him any attention while here, notwithstanding he has a number of acquaintances in this city, and many Presbyterian brethren. He had a hang-dog look, and even seemed to be ashamed of himself. While Foster and Wade, and Howard and others, were treated respectfully, no man had a word for the apostate Maynard. If we can respect the enemy, who, from location, education, and even prejudices, opposed us during the war, we can only despise the man who was of us and yet against us. Infamous forever be his name.—Lynchburg Virginian.

NORTHERN METHODISM.—The Northern Methodist will hold a meeting in Portsmouth, Virginia, on the 3d of January, 1867, when, we learn, a Conference will be organized for the States of Virginia and North Carolina.

He is known to be a ripe scholar and an accomplished gentleman.—Mrs. AVERETT is also well known, both in Virginia and North Carolina, as a successful teacher, in both the Literary and Music Departments of the best Female Schools.

In a word, the Principal has resolved to make this School all that it professes to be, viz: a High School of the first grade. In order to this, he has employed only such teachers as are known to be accomplished scholars, and who have established a reputation as successful instructors.

The number of pupils will not hereafter be limited, and additional teachers will be employed so soon as the patronage will justify it.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Monday Evening, Dec. 31, 1866.

The Supreme Court.

The people of the South, and the people of North Carolina, particularly, have ever been a law-loving and a law-abiding people. During the late war, such was their instinctive reverence for law, that they cheerfully acquiesced in legislation that took the tithe of their productions and conscripted themselves and their sons for the ranks of the army. Since the war they have yielded, with patient and almost uncomplaining forbearance, to the most stringent exactions,—to laws that oppressed, while yielding little of compensating advantage,—to taxation without representation, and to the most injurious discriminations against person and property. Under any circumstances they were powerless, of themselves, to redress such grievances; but the poor privilege of the worm, to turn when trod upon, was at least theirs. This they have hardly exercised, but have borne all with a resignation and serenity that were sufficient, one would have supposed, to disarm hostility and aggression.

Educated to love law, inheriting the English reverence for its forms and obligations, looking to the expositions of the Bench as the chart of their civic duties, our people have, from the commencement of their troubles, looked with an anxious, but confident eye to the Supreme Court of the United States as the source of their deliverance. They could not fail to remember that even among the most frightful convulsions of society, the Judiciary of England, with, perhaps, not more than three individual exceptions, had preserved the ermine unsoiled, and expounded the law in its integrity, unawed by the clamors of faction, the prejudices of the populace or the bribes of power. They could but recall, with pride and encouragement, the fact that the Judiciary of our own country had, in no instance, when the issue was fully joined before them, failed to interpret the law and the Constitution, in their true letter and spirit, free from passion and political bias. They have never lost the hope, amounting almost to assurance, that the Supreme Court of the United States would interpose, at the proper time, to check the progress of Radical anarchy, and lift again to its pedestal the overthrown statue of Constitutional liberty. They could not believe, notwithstanding its accidental sectional composition, that a tribunal of such prestige and dignity, elevated far above the arena of strife and bitterness, would succumb to the promptings of party hate or listen to the ravings of a mob.

This confidence has not been misplaced. The recent decision of the Supreme Court in the matter of trials by military commissions, though too late to prevent much of evil and outrage, and the foreshadowed decision in the matter of the test-oath, have strengthened the hopes of our people and inspired them with fresh courage and thankfulness. The comparison would not be a strained one to say, that these decisions are like the light-house on the coast, that throws its rays far across the troubled waters and points the course by which the vessel may be safely steered. They hold out the cheering assurance that there is a power in the land which can and will rescue the Constitution from the hands of the madmen who would pervert and subvert it.

The bitter attacks which are being made upon the Court, and the courses, loud and deep, that are being heaped upon its head, by the Radical malignants, sufficiently evidence their rage and disappointment at having encountered "a lion in their path." Happily, their fury is as impotent, as their frustrated revenge is likely to be intense. Bad as they are, they dare not, if they could, lay sacrilegious hands upon that altar.

Let us, therefore, not despond. There is hope in the situation. The skies are not all obscured. Let us continue to act with prudence, dignity, manliness and moderation, and, in the language of our excellent Governor, we will yet reap the rewards of well-doing,—if not immediately, yet at no remote day. When that day comes, our consciences will be stainless, while words will be inadequate to measure the infamy of the evil men in our midst who are seeking to destroy us.

WE HAVE heretofore expressed the opinion that the Stevens-Holden Bill was a miserable piece of batch-work, unworthy the merest tyro. The same opinion is thus forcibly enunciated by a cotemporary "way down" in New Hampshire. It says:

"The proposition to organize a territorial government for the 'district of North Carolina,' looks more like the apprentice-work of an amateur school district Congress than of a real Congress of the United States. It is hard to realize that anybody can be serious in such a work; and we still think it very doubtful whether even Thad Stevens really intends anything more than to intimidate that State and others into a compliance with his demands.

"As some seem to regard the matter as quite in earnest, it will be well to remember that no department of the government has ever recognized those States as out of the Union. Even this Congress has repeatedly recognized their indentity as organized States under the Constitution. Of course any action based upon any other theory is clearly revolutionary by the testimony of Congress itself.

"It is sometime asked—Who shall reconstruct—the President or Congress? The answer is, if the States were always in the Union, there is no reconstruction to be done—and this is the simple fact. North Carolina is already an organized State; and Congress has no more right to order a constitutional convention than in New Hampshire; and we suppose the people of that State will pay as little attention to such an order as we would; and that the President would be about as likely to enforce it here as there."

The largest man in Pennsylvania died the other day. His coffin was a yard broad and two feet deep.

Dr. Beecher's Charity.

A friend of ours, who heard Dr. Beecher preach in his Church in Brooklyn, last Sunday week, informs us, that, after preaching a fine sermon, he informed his congregation that he should then proceed to take up a "miscellaneous collection" for certain purposes. He stated that some young ladies connected with his Church, prompted by a pious concern for the poor blacks, had gone South for the purpose of teaching them, and that their letters to him represented their condition as extremely doleful and distressing. One or more letters just received from them, represented that in that section of the South, in which some of these young ladies were, many of their scholars could only get one meal a day, that many of them were starving, and that the mortality among the blacks was so great, that the time of the carpenters was almost entirely occupied in making coffins for them. Mr. Beecher presented the case very pathetically; the effect upon the congregation was visible and a large collection was raised. One of the objects was to enable these teachers to afford the children one more meal a day.

In what part of the South this state of things existed, Mr. Beecher did not say, and we are totally at a loss to locate the place. We are very certain that it cannot be in North Carolina, nor anywhere else in the South, unless it be in those localities where the blacks have been congregrated in communities away from the whites, and do not seek, or refuse, to be employed by the whites. In this city, and in other places in the State, our colored population seem not to suffer for food or clothing. So far as we are advised, abject want is far more common among the poor whites than among the blacks. There are two or three times as many black children going to school, in this city, as whites.—It is uncommon for colored boys or girls from twelve to fourteen years of age, to be regularly employed at work. Most of them, and a number of grown ones, are going to school, and seldom work. So far as we can judge, they are doing well in respect to food and raiment. All can get employment who desire it, and if a circus or a show, or a celebration, comes along, they seem to have money enough to enjoy themselves fully as well as, if not better than, the poor whites.

If, however, the sympathy of our Northern friends extends far enough, to prompt them to feed and clothe the colored children to enable them to go to school without work, they will have ample room for their charity. Our Southern whites are not able to educate the poor white children for a fourth or half the year and let them work the other portion. Many of our present race of white children must grow up in ignorance, unless matters get much better with us.

The Effect of Gen. Sickles' Order.

Our Northern friends, and our improvised army officers and soldiers, have suddenly become greatly shocked at what they are pleased to term the barbarity of Southern punishments for crime, and especially the criminal code of North Carolina. Their sympathies have become very tender, especially for the poor blacks, under the demoralizing influences of the war.—Whether this originates in real humanity, or because the great increase of crime and bloodshed have tended to render their feelings indifferent to crime, and led them to view it as possessing less turpitude than formerly, we are not fully prepared to determine; yet we strongly incline to the opinion that the latter is the real reason. Certainly the punishments of military law have never been less harsh than those of the civil law. Indeed, the criminal laws of North Carolina have been mild compared with the military regime. Old army officers, who know how difficult it is to suppress crime or cure it, exhibit none of this sensitiveness, as a general rule.

One thing is certain, that the prompt administration of the criminal law in North Carolina, in former days, had a most powerful influence in restraining crime. No population of the same number in the Union can show a better criminal record than this State.

The effect of Gen. Sickles' recent order, as soon as it became known, exhibited an unwonted recklessness in some communities. We are informed upon good authority, that its effect in the neighborhood of Newbern was palpably injurious in a few days. In less than a week, in that section, after the civil law was suspended by that order, there was a case of murder, a case of rape, a man was shot in the leg requiring amputation, besides sundry minor offences.—Since the restoration of civil law, there has been a manifest change for the better. Insubordination, robbery and other crimes, became more manifest in other parts of the State, when that order was known.

Here, during the Christmas holidays, the good effects of the prompt administration of the law have been manifest. We have not heard of a case of robbery, or scarcely a misdemeanor has come to our knowledge since.

Yet we are not adverse by any means to right modifications of the criminal law, and to any improved and more effective modes of punishing crime, which would restrain and prevent it. The prompt execution of the law is, after all, more effective than severity, and the temporary suspension, even of the civil law, by the military, cannot be otherwise than deleterious.

The mouth of the Amazon is large enough to take in the States of Massachusetts and Rhode Island. [Suppose it should do it.]

AFRICAN FREEDOM.—The amiable King of Dahomey, to propitiate fortune, recently sacrificed two hundred men to the genii.

The London Times, in a leading article on a recent fatal accident at Mont Blanc, suggested that the time may perhaps come when steps and iron rails and galleries will lead to the monarch of mountains' summit, which will be surmounted by a hotel with a table d' hote.

Where is Butler? Sir Frederick Bruce had all his spoons stolen the other night.—Prentice.

It is thought that the government has been cheated out of one hundred millions of dollars by the evasion of the whiskey tax.

For the Sentinel.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I notice, in your Semi-Weekly of 19th inst., the speech made by the Hon. Josiah Turner, at the meeting of the Stockholders of the North Carolina Railroad Company, held at Raleigh.

Mr. Turner is an intelligent gentleman, a good speaker and ready writer, and states some good and true things. But, like other men, he does not know everything, and is therefore liable to err and make random statements that may mislead others,—especially when he undertakes to speak of the motives of men's actions, with which he is not acquainted, or about matters of which he has not much practical experience or correct information. It appears to me that some of the gentleman's statements are liable to those objections.

It is true, as he states, that old North Carolina has acted a liberal part towards the North Carolina Railroad, and well she might; for it is a great work, and, if properly managed, will prove a blessing, and assist much in making available the resources of the country, and thereby enrich the State. It is, also, too true, that the business of the Company, thus far, has not been as well managed, in some particulars, as it might and ought to have been. But I can't say it is strictly true that "in 1862 the Legislature gave the Stockholders what they now ask."

I think if the gentleman will compare the bills he will find a difference between them.—The first bill, while it gave the Stockholders the control of the Road, at the same time took the power from the largest Stockholders who were most deeply interested in the prosperity of the Road, and left it with those who had contributed least to build it, and had, therefore, less interest in its success. A difference which some of the large Stockholders thought of such vast importance to the future success of the Road, that they felt constrained, without "political or pernicious reasons," to vote against the amendment, which, otherwise, was very acceptable to them.

It may be that some voted for and also against the amendment, for the reasons assigned by the gentleman, that I dont know. But I do know that a large majority of the votes cast in the negative were given for the reasons above stated by me.

The lamented Gov. Morehead, one of the first and greatest of our railroad men, labored earnestly to have the first amendment adopted by the Stockholders; but, from his after experience, and remarks make on that subject, it is my humble opinion, had he been spared and were he with us now, he would warn us, for the good of the Road, not to put such a clause in the second bill.

Many of the Stockholders, who are deeply interested in the prosperity of the Road, feel as the Hon. Gov. Swain once expressed himself at a meeting of the Stockholders, when it was whispered that the Directors, appointed by the State, owned little or no stock in the Road:—"I prefer having the men, who are to direct the business of the Company in which I am, to be as deeply interested in their pockets, as I am myself." Is there not wisdom in this preference? Who objects to a man having rule in any great improvement because he has invested too much funds in it, and thereby shows too much interest in its prosperity? Man is a selfish being, and I admit that, in corporations instituted solely for the purpose of making money, out of money transactions, it may be prudent to have a check to prevent avarice from over-reaching the public weal. But there is no necessity for such a check in our public improvements.

Is the State, or the small Stockholders, afraid that the stock will become too valuable, and pay excessive dividends? The general complaint has been and now is, that there has been but little, and now are no dividends. And it is feared by some that there never will be, unless the control of the road is given to those whose pockets are deeply interested in its prosperity. And for these reasons, they have petitioned the Legislature.

It has been, and still is, difficult, yea even impossible, to get private individuals, as a general thing, to take as much interest in the way of stock in our great improvements as they ought to do. And the building of the N. C. Rail Road was not an exception; although many public spirited men came forward as a band of brothers, resolved to honor the State and benefit their country, and pledged their substance to secure the road, many stood aloof with their thousands and did not help, and they now enjoy the benefits.

Under these circumstances, does not good policy suggest, as an inducement for capitalists to do their duty towards the encouragement and support of our Internal Improvements, that the power of stock be enlarged in a greater ratio as it increases, instead of being diminished?

But, I have been digressing. So let us return to Mr. Turner's remark when he further says: "The State paid money, the Stockholders did not. They paid in work at such liberal prices as to make the road cost one million more than the original estimate. So, we may say the large stockholders, who paid their subscription in work instead of money, hold their stock without having paid a dime for it."—"Three millions would have built the road, but it cost four millions. The Stockholders and contractors for work getting the fourth million in the way of stock. In other words, there was a million given in the way of bounty to those who would do work on the road." I regret that the gentleman made such statements. Because of his being a Director, it may be presumed that he knows, and, from his general intelligence on some other subjects, they may be believed by the inexperienced and those who have not examined into the true state of the case, and will accordingly create a prejudice against our public works, and do gross injustice to those noble, patriotic men who came forward and gave their time and money (in some cases their all) to secure that great State work. I suppose the gentleman is honest, and expressed his opinion. But do either practical experience or facts sustain his statements? See Col. Walter Gwynn's report to the board of Directors, January 10th. 1856, in which that talented engineer says:

"I have repeatedly said publicly, and, perceiving no impropriety in it, I avail myself of this occasion to say, that, in my experience, now exceeding thirty years, I have not found on any public work, with which I have been connected, a set of contractors more reliable than those I have had to deal with on the N. C. Railroad.—I consider it proper here to remark that the work, though paid for partly in stock—the exact ratio of which I am not able to state, though I believe it may be put down at about two-fifths, that is, two of stock to three of cash payments—was originally estimated for, let, and completed at cash prices; and I feel fully justified in stating that the Road has cost less than if let wholly for cash."

This report then goes on to show, by incontestible facts and figures, that the whole work, as originally estimated for, was executed for $7,282 under the estimate; and also shows, conclusively, that the great cost, over and above what was at first expected, was caused by the great rise in the price of iron, the cost of real estate, machinery, &c., and had no connection, whatever, with the original contractors. Labor, provisions and everything increased in price during the progress of the work. But no increase of pay was made to contractors.

Is the gentleman one of the original Stockholders and contractors, and ignorant of these things? If so, I would inform him (by stubborn facts and figures, if necessary) that there was much work done on the road, by the original contractors, the pay for which did not amount to as much in cash, and stock, by ten to twenty per cent. as was paid in cash, on some adjoining roads at that time. Therefore, "it is neither generous nor just" to imply that the "pain in the stomach" was caused by them. The truth is, that some of these noble men, who came forward in their zeal to secure the building of the Road, laid too large an offering upon the altar of patriotism, and it took their all, and broke them up, while there are others, that are still groaning under the debts they contracted to meet their engagements. There are others, who had larger means in proportion to their stock, who were enabled to work it out without getting in debt, but found, in the end, that they would have saved both time and money, had they paid direct cash for their stock, as a large number of subscribers did. And I know of some whose contracts turned out favorably, who sustained no loss, except in the depreciation of their stock, and I hope there may be a good many of this class. If the gentleman from Orange got his stock by working on the road without having paid a dime for it, why that would be another class; but he being the only one I know of, I think his class must be small, while I know of many of the first named classes, and might give a list of them. A few will suffice as examples: The gentleman who made the largest individual subscription, wrought out his contracts and paid his stock, found, to his sorrow, that his contracts broke him. In another case $2,500 of stock was taken and worked out, at a cost to the contractor of $5,591,31.—Another who took $5,000 stock, and a contract, found, when his contract was finished, that his stock cost him over $7,000 cash, besides his trouble. But enough.

I give these hard cases, not from hearsay, or imagination, but from facts, and figures. And I think they conclusively prove, that while the original Stockholders and contractors did not give "a pain in the stomach" to the corporation, that the building of the road did give "a pain in the stomach" to some of them. Will not an intelligent, correct public sentiment, commiserate the losses of these worthy public spirited men, and delight to do them honor?

Hoping, Messrs. Editors, that you will excuse this (to me unconscious) lengthy communication, and that my inexperienced pen may not by its "green apples" give you 'A pain in the stomach,'

I am, &c., AN OBSERVER.

Alston, deceased, by virtue of the power conferred on him by his Testator, will offer for sale at ARCOLA, in said County, the following Tracts of Land, to-wit: One tract containing about 425 acres, adjoining the HOUSE tract on the East side, and that of Judge Asa Biggs on the North, which tract has on it a small branch-mill, and some improvements, to wit: A half dozen first class negro Cabins, Corn Cribs, &c., and is in fine condition for a crop next year, for eight or ten hands. One other tract adjacent to the Grove Hill and Arcola road, adjoining the last mentioned tract on the Northeast, and containing about 800 acres. This tract has no improvements and no cleared land, but is in original growth, well timbered and watered, and is one of the best tracts in Warren County.
One tract known as "Melton's Creek" tract, adjoining the lands of Gen. Samuel A. Williams and Dr. Mark P. Perry, containing, by estimation, 585 acres, about 100 of which is fine low grounds on Melton's Creek. This tract has no improvements, but could easily be put in a condition for cultivation, and is remarkably well adapted to the growth of Cotton, Tobacco and Corn.
One tract known as the "Arcola Tract," situated at the point where the Halifax and Louisburg road crosses the Warrenton and Nashville road. This tract contains 82 acres by estimation, and is well suited to the growth of Cotton, Tobacco, Wheat and Corn. It has on it, just at the cross-roads, a convenient Store House, which is undoubtedly one of the best stands for a Country Store in the State.
The said Tracts of land will be sold at public auction, on a credit of twelve (12) months, with interest from date, and bond with approved security will be required from the purchaser.
The Subscriber will take pleasure in showing the land to any person who may wish to examine it.

THE SENTINEL.

Monday Evening, Dec. 31, 1866.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

HENDERSON COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.—We invite attention to the announcement of this Institute in another column. We have the pleasure of knowing Mr. Fetter, personally, and can bear testimony to his superior qualifications for his profession. The Faculty of the University, of which he was at one time a part, will bear similar testimony.

SCHOOL.—Miss Frances A. Haywood will reopen her School for children on the 10th prox. See announcement.

THE SUPREME COURT of North Carolina meets in this city on the 14th. inst.

EX-GOV. VANCE passed through this city this morning en route for Newbern, where he is to deliver the address to the Knights at the Tournament to-morrow. Our friends below have bad weather for their sport, but we doubt not everything will pass off well, nevertheless. Newbern has the nack of 'doing things up brown," when she sets about it.

IF THE UNPROPITIOUS weather does not force a postponement, the children attached to the Episcopal Sunday School are to enjoy themselves around a New Year's Tree to-morrow afternoon, which has been gotten up, for their benefit, by their teachers. Heaven bless all the dear children,—may they have a happy time!

FOR NEWS ITEMS, and other interesting matter, see the outside of the Sentinel. With a view to giving additional prominence to the favors of our advertisers, we shall endeavor hereafter, to locate reading matter upon each page of our paper.

WE HAVE always thought that it was a bad arrangement which fixed the last day of the natural year as the end of the year for rents, &c. The inconvenience and discomfort of moving in mid-winter are a terrible greivance. How much better the custom which obtains at the North, where the first of May, in the mild and genial days of spring, marks the expiration of rents. We commiserate such of our citizens as are compelled to shift their quarters in such a season as is now upon us.

Speaking of rents, the supply seems to be entirely equal to the demand. There is no reason, therefore, why the high prices should continue. Several very eligible houses are offered for rent in our columns, which are, as yet, without tenants.

ACCIDENT ON N. C. R. R.—We learn that on Friday, when eleven miles beyond Salisbury and with the train running 25 miles an hour, the axle of one of the passenger cars snapped in two, and the car, in that condition, was dragged some distance before the engine could be reversed. Fortunately no one was seriously injured. It is almost miraculous that any one should have escaped unhurt under such circumstances.

WARREN COUNTY.—A highly intelligent correspondent, writing from this county, and the length of whose communication, we regret to say, precludes its publication, recommends Lieut. Benjamin M. Collins for election to the House of Commons, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Mr. Judkins. Our correspondent speaks in high terms of Mr. C's claims and qualifications. We have no doubt he would make an excellent representative.

On Christmas eve, while the Mayor of Richmond was engaged in lecturing a parcel of boys on the impropriety of firing pop-crackers in the street, a couple of them attached a pack of the noisy "red devils" to his coat-tail and set fire to them. Before His Honor could extricate himself from the dilemma the little rascals disappeared.

There are now 359 students at Washington College, Lexington, who hail, in the numbers given, from the following States: Virginia 130, Tennessee 40, Kentucky 37, Texas 22, Louisiana 17, Alabama 14, Mississippi 12, Maryland 9, North Carolina 7, Georgia, 7, West Virginia 6, Florida 5, Missouri 5, South Carolina 4, Arkansas 2, District of Columbia 2, New York 2, Kansas 1, California 1, New Jersey 1, Massachusetts 1, Pennsylvania 1.

The long dress regime seems to be on its last feet, judging from the appearance our fashionables present on the street. Men will now no more be thrown upon their noses by treading upon crinoline; the disgusting scavenger's office will be abolished by the ladies, and frowning faces will no more attend torn flounces. The era of short dresses has begun.—Home Journal.

NEW ORLEANS, December 27.—The congressional excursion party from Washington arrived here to night, and were received and escorted by a large body of ex-Confederates to their apartments at the St. Louis Hotel.

The Chicago Times states that during the week ending December 24, there was not a single application for divorce before any of the courts in that city, and records the fact as one of the most remarkable things in the history of Chicago.

Bennett has abandoned the advocacy of the policy of territorializing the South. He now favors letting them alone. It is a disgrace to the city of New York that so unprincipled a journal should be sustained there.

It is stated that a member of the Tennessee Legislature who is not satisfied with his pay has added a trifle to his income by becoming a waiter in a Nashville restaurant.

The New York Herald joins in the demand for a reduction of the taxes,—declaring that they are "now double or nearly double what they ought to be."

THE WORLD MOVES.—The petition of six darkeys of Alabama was presented to Congress, the other day, asking the impeachment of President Johnson.

The Chicago Tribune proposes Horace Greeley as the Democratic candidate for the Presidency in 1868, on the amnesty platform.

A scheme is discussed in Paris for the erection of a monster hotel to contain five thousand rooms.

Our Monday Morning Dispatches.

From Washington.—The "Test Oath."—President's Reception.—French vs. English Politeness.—The Mexican "Situation."

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29, P. M.

The position of the Supreme Court on the Test Oath, as reported by this association three weeks ago, is confirmed fully. If Judge Grier's health permits, the decision will be delivered on Monday, but each Judge will deliver a separate opinion,—five against and four favoring its constitutionality.

The President holds the usual reception on Tuesday.

The Courrier des Etats Unis, of to-day, explains the non-reception of Mr. Seward's cable dispatch of the 22nd ult. It was presented to the Minister of Foreign Affairs by Mr. Bigelow, and was refused, on account of its rudeness.—Mr. Bigelow argued that what was rude in French was very polite in English; to which the Minister replied that it was useless to discuss a paper of a government which did not regard its own stipulations of neutrality, and instanced the occupation of Matamoras. Mr. Bigelow then telegraphed Mr. Seward and getting a reply denying the occupation, the cable dispatch was received conditionally, but was afterwards returned to Bigelow on confirmation of the occupation.

Senor Romero, representing the Juarez government here, is of opinion that owing to mutual violations of understood stipulations on the part of France and the U. S, both parties will act their pleasure in Mexican affairs. He is apprehensive that the re-patriation of the French will not occur until it suits Napoleon's convenience.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box fail taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

The Richmond Times says: We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Gardner is the most scientific and successful eye and ear Surgeon in this country.

The Wheeling Register says: "Dr. Gardner is one of the most successful Oculists and Aurists in the country. We advise those suffering from the diseases of the eye and ear to consult him."

This remedy has rarely failed to cure the severest cases of Chills and Fever, and it has this great advantage over other Ague medicines, that it confines the complaint without injury to the patient. SOMETHING NEW UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER, Notary Public, Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS, 116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY, 27 Pitt Street.

New York, April 7, 1866.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower; and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY, 119 Goerck Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

J. MAGGIEL, M. D.

P. F. PESCUD AGENT FOR RALEIGH, FOR MAGGIEL'S PILLS AND SALVE.

NOTICE.—None genuine without the engraved trademark around each pot or box, signed by Dr. J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine Street, New York, to counterfeit which is felony.

THIS TIME-HONORED INSTITUTION IS ONCE more in successful operation, with a FULL CORPS OF PROFESSORS. The chairs of the several schools are filled by able and experienced men. There are five literary and scientific schools, viz: of ANCIENT LANGUAGES, MATHEMATICS, CHEMISTRY and, NATURAL PHILOSOPHY, MORAL PHILOSOPHY and MODERN LANGUAGES. The high grade of scholarship formerly required is still maintained. We have a full Chemical and Philosophical Apparatus for the illustration of the subjects taught.

The location of the College is unsurpassed for health and geniality. It is situated midway between the mountains and the seaboard; and during a career of thirty-three years, and with thousands of young men in attendance, there has never been a death arising from malaria or other local cause. We profess to educate young men not only mentally and morally but physically also.

BOARD IS SIXTEEN DOLLARS PER MONTH.

Tuition from $40 to $90, according to the number of schools attended. $250 will cover expenses of board, tickets for three schools, matriculation and contingent fees for ten months.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. B. PELL, Proprietor.

United States Supreme Court Decision.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 25.

In a case from Mississippi, decided this morning, the United States Supreme Court held that when a judgment is concluded by a court in one State, it is equally concluded as to every other State, and so remains until set aside by a Superior Court, only a court of chancery, on the basis of section first, article fourth of the Constitution, that full faith and credit shall be given in each State to the public acts, records, and judicial proceedings of every other State.—Correspondent Sun.

This decision assumes, too, it will be noticed, that Mississippi is a State. Thad Stevens must make haste to abolish the Supreme Court, or all his territorializing projects will be killed off.

Supreme Court.

The late decision on the subject of military tribunals having attracted unusual attention to this body, it will interest our readers to know, as many of them, owing to the events of the last few years, do not, of what Judges the Court is composed. The members are:

1863—S. P. Chase, Ohio, Chief Justice.
1835—James M. Wayne, Georgia.
1845—Samuel Nelson, New York.
1846—Robert C. Grier, Pennsylvania.
1858—Nathan Clifford, Maine.
1862—Noah M. Swayne, Ohio.
1862—David Davis, Illinois.
1862—Samuel F. Miller, Iowa.
1863—Stephen J. Field, California.

Of these the first and four last were appointed by Mr. Lincoln, and eight of the nine are Northern men.

HON. R. K. SPEED.—The thanks of this community are due to the above-named Senator from the District of Elizabeth City, North Carolina, as well as to several other gentlemen, for services by them rendered to the Norfolk delegation in behalf of the bill giving to the Dismal Swamp Canal Company the privilege of issuing 8 per cent. bonds.

It gives us the greatest pleasure to record this evidence of the interest in Norfolk taken by the first men in the Old North State. It is true that their interests are not always favored with men of so great discernment as the gentlemen above named and referred to.

It will give us the greatest pleasure to reciprocate the kindness which they have evinced towards us, and to advance the interests of North Carolina whenever it is in our power.—Norfolk Journal.

The New York World thinks the SOUTH should not be intimidated by the threats of territorializing these States. It says:

"Congress has no executive authority whatever, nor has it any power to coerce the two great co ordinate departments of the Government, which are as independent in their respective spheres as the two Houses of Congress are in theirs. The framing of an efficient territorializing law adequate to the government of great, populous States; adequate to their government in opposition both to their own will and that of the President, will be found, on trial, a task of such difficulty, that it is doubtful if Congress can be brought to agree on the details of a bill. The certainty of its being vetoed, renders it necessary that it should command the assent of two-thirds of both Houses,—a degree of unanimity which the Republican party in Congress will not easily reach in the details of so impracticable a project. But these difficulties, whatever their value, may be safely laid out of the estimate, since the project is certain to be wrecked against the Supreme Court. We would gladly learn from the Republicans who brandish this foolish menace, how a law is to be enforced which the Supreme Court declares unconstitutional. When this can be told, the threats may, perhaps, carry some terror."

RADICAL SCHEMES.—There is an evident improvement in the tone of public sentiment at the metropolis. More moderate views have not, indeed, been developed by the leading radical Republicans, but they have ben compelled to change their deceitful tactics with respect to the South, while those statesmen of the constitutional party who had almost "despaired of the Republic" have been of late encouraged to hope that we have seen the worst, and may now reasonably expect a speedy return of the northern mind to something like common sense. It is now clear enough that the revolutionary measures proposed by individual members of either House of Congress looking towards a disruption of the Union by converting the ten unrepresented States into provinces, to be governed by alien satraps, or that other mode of upsetting the existing general government by turning those States over to the tender mercies of the blacks, and this handful of mercenary allies—a sure method of producing internecine war—are now admitted to be impracticable under the forms of the existing government.

The rejected southern members will not be admitted to seats in Congress, on any terms, until after the Presidential election. The contemplated overthrow of the Government, it is seen, cannot be accomplished by mere acts of Congress during a time of profound peace, and while honest judges occupy seats on the Supreme Court bench. The excitement of a Presidential election, therefore, and a determination by the House to exclude the electoral votes of ten sovereign States, is relied upon as the propitious moment to force upon the country another war. —Washington letter in Baltimore Gazette.
